

I think XM Satellite Radio should not be limited in its broadcast of local channels. I don't see how such broadcasts can do anything but benefit customers. Regulation should be for the benefit of the public listeners, not for those who profit from broadcast.